Since the announcement that Vice President Thomas R. CLUB NOTES

Official Organ State Federation of Clubs

Are you an advocate of gymnasium and dancing classes in connection with women's clubs? For the rural club such a thing is not to be considered unless there is a strong sentiment in its favor. The country woman has sufficient outdoor activity and does not require gymnasium work. A class in athletic dancing for the young members championed by the older club women might have its advantages in the rural community."

MRS. E. E. JACK,
Pres. of the Glendale Woman's Club.

With an increase in membership and an interest that has never been shown before the Musicians' club is making notable progress this season. The study class, under the direction of Elton Ensign Hale is supplementing the work of the club to a remarkable degree. The class will meet at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon and Mr. Hale requests that each member be prepared with the first chapter of the books which are at their disposal at Elvey and Hulett. The club program will follow the lesson and will be given promptly at three o'clock. Mrs. Harry Carson will be the chairman. The following will be the numbers:

Voice, "In the City of the Misgar," "The Moon Has Long Since Wandered," from a Night in Nalshatur by Mary Turner Selter. Mrs. C. M. Gandy.
